RFTAP/QCBS/3.24 «Development of normative legal acts for the Subjects of the Russian Federation and municipal entities on the formation of financial expenditure norms»

The Russian Federation has received financing from the World Bank toward the cost of the Regional Fiscal Technical Assistance Project, and intends to apply part of the proceeds for consultant services under the contract RFTAP/QCBS/3.24 «Development of normative legal acts for the Subjects of the Russian Federation and municipal entities on the formation of financial expenditure norms».

The services include: Analysis and Review of Russian practice of financing of state and municipal public services provision on the formation of financial expenditure norms; Development of typical draft legal acts and methodical recommendations on the formation of financial expenditure norms on provision of state and municipal public services; Rendering assistance to RF regions in practical implementation of the developed legal base on the formation of financial expenditure norms.

The services are to be implemented from November 2010 to April 2011.

The Non-commercial Foundation for Enterprise Restructuring and Financial Institutions Development hereby invites eligible consultants to indicate their interest in providing the services. Interested consultants must provide information indicating that they are qualified to perform the services (brochures, description of similar assignments, experience in similar conditions, availability of appropriate skills among staff, etc.). Consultants may associate to enhance their qualifications.

A consultant will be selected in accordance with the procedures set out in the World Bank's Guidelines: Selection and Employment of Consultants by World Bank Borrowers dated January 1997 and amended in September 1997 and in January 1999.

Interested consultants may obtain further information at the address below during office hours from 10:00am to 6:00pm Moscow time Monday through Friday.

Expressions of interest must be delivered to the address below by August 20, 2010.
