RFTAP/SBCQ/2.22 «Assistance to the RF Minfin in development of stimulation mechanisms of attracting long-term foreign investments in Russia, using instruments of International Financial Institutions, which include partial credit guarantees and grants»

The Russian Federation has received financing from the World Bank toward the cost of the Regional Fiscal Technical Assistance Project, and intends to apply part of the proceeds for consultant services under the contract RFTAP/SBCQ/2.22 «Assistance to the RF Minfin in development of stimulation mechanisms of attracting long-term foreign investments in Russia, using instruments of International Financial Institutions, which include partial credit guarantees and grants».

The services include: analysis of direct foreign investment dynamics and long-term financing attraction to the Russian economy; analysis of possibilities to attract direct foreign investments and long-term financing into the Russian economy through the instrumentality of international financial organizations; development of proposals to increase direct foreign investment and long-term financing attraction to the Russian economy, in particular, to the infrastructure through the instrumentality of international financial organizations.

The services are to be implemented from September 2010 to February 2011.

The Non-commercial Foundation for Enterprise Restructuring and Financial Institutions Development hereby invites eligible consultants to indicate their interest in providing the services. Interested consultants must provide information indicating that they are qualified to perform the services (brochures, description of similar assignments, experience in similar conditions, availability of appropriate skills among staff, etc.). Consultants may associate to enhance their qualifications.

A consultant will be selected in accordance with the procedures set out in the World Bank's Guidelines: Selection and Employment of Consultants by World Bank Borrowers dated January 1997 and amended in September 1997 and in January 1999.

Interested consultants may obtain further information at the address below during office hours from 10:00am to 6:00pm Moscow time Monday through Friday.

Expressions of interest must be delivered to the address below by July 26, 2010.
